Re: United States v. Marianna Levin, No. 20-cr-00681 (JC) (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Cronan:

We represent Marianna Levin in the above-captioned action. We write with the consent of the government to seek an adjournment of the deadlines for the sentencing submissions in connection with Ms. Levin's sentencing, which is currently scheduled to take place on January 6, 2023 at 10:00 am.

On September 26, 2022, the Court granted the parties' joint request to adjourn Ms. Levin's sentencing due to her counsel's and the government's trials throughout the fall. See ECF No. 280. That endorsement did not state whether the corresponding deadlines for sentencing submissions, currently due October 13, 2022 for Ms. Levin and October 20, 2022 for the government, should also be adjourned to reflect the new sentencing date.

Accordingly, Ms. Levin, with the government's consent, requests that the deadlines for the sentencing submissions for Ms. Levin be due December 23, 2022 for Ms. Levin, and December 30, 2022 for the government (two weeks and one week prior to her sentencing, respectively). See Judge John P. Cronan Individual Rules and Practices in Criminal Cases, Rule 8(A).

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Sean Hecker
